

GOV. ALTGELD STATUE CALLED INSULT TO LABOR

John Devereux York, member state art commission, says the memorial statue to late Gov. John P. Altgeld is an insult to labor. "So it may not be dedicated Labor Day as planned."

Labor in the statue is shown kissing the hem of Gov. Altgeld's garment.

"Labor does not kiss the hem of any garment," said York. "Labor is majestic. Labor does not bow. Gov. Altgeld himself would kick the statue into the lake."

"There is a crooked angle besides the insult to labor. Former State Sen. John Waage and others ordered the statue from Guston Borglum without consulting the municipal and state art commissions."

MINISTER GERMAN SPY?

There is growing belief today that Rev. Edmund Kayser, Gary, was murdered by adherents of the allied cause. Telegrams which the Lutheran minister sent to Ambassador Bernstorff showed that if Kayser was not a paid spy he was at least an active voluntary worker in the German cause and that he did many things intended to hinder shipment of war munitions.

CLAIM BRIBE ATTEMPT

Police say attempt was made to bribe them when squad under Sergt. John Kelly, 5th precinct, raided 3530 Wabash av., last night.

Whiskey, gin, cards and 16 men and women were brought into court today. Jimmy Williams, boss of the place, was fined $25 and Lulu Weathers, keeper, $10 for keeping a gambling house.

Our largest cotton-producing county Ellis county, Texas, yielded 143,714 bales last year. This is more than six times the amount raised in the whole state of Virginia and more than was raised in either Missouri or Florida.

SOUTH WALES MINERS AFFAIR ENDS IN WIN FOR MEN

London, Aug. 31. — The South Wales coal miners dispute ended this afternoon in complete victory for the men. Following two days of conferences here the government announced this afternoon that the coal operators have conceded the demands of the miners and that the men who quit work in some districts will be back in the mines tomorrow.

The terms of the settlement agreed upon today by a deputation of miners officials and coal operators will be submitted to the miners delegates for formal ratification at Cardiff tomorrow.

BODIES IN SUBMARINE CAN'T BE LOCATED

Honolulu, Aug. 31. — Submarine F-4, which sank in Pearl Harbor, March 25 and was brought into dry dock here last night, was fully exposed early today. Through a large hole in the bow all compartments were examined, but no trace was found of bodies of submarine's crew. Believed buried under piles of sand and other debris in submersible's interior.

HELEN PETURK STILL MISSING

Six-year-old Helen Peturk of Hege-wisch is still missing. Hundreds of anxious people from the far south village searched yesterday through the town itself and far into the swamps which border several lakes in the region.

Police from three stations in special details have been sent to Hege-wisch to lead search parties. Fear that tramps lured the child have been expressed by the police.

BITS OF NEWS

Rose Weiss, 16, 1254 S. Leavitt, leaped into river. Rescued.

Mrs. Irene Morrison, 3348 S. State, skull perhaps fractured. Auto overturned.